Men who buy cigars
not according to what they cost but for what they are, enjoy

La Sultana

The High Grade Cigar That Sells for 5 Cents

Its sweet, mild Havana tobacco captivates men who know good cigars. Its delicious aroma captivates their friends. It convinces both that for the first time in cigar history it is possible to get a smooth, enjoyable, really GOOD cigar for 5 cents.

If you're a smoker of medium priced cigars you'll find a treat in La Sultana—at cigar stands generally.

drawn by Agnes C. Johnston, who wrote "The Man Girl" and "Prologue to Death."

Doris Mitchell of the "Jimmie Dale" series, who was hurt in an auto accident, will be all right in time for "The Powers." Florence Woods, who had Miss Mitchell been anything but a simple actress, should have been killed in the smash.

The Strand management has concluded arrangements with Florence Woods, whereby she will furnish that theater with weekly fashion review in time. After taking up Miss Woods' work, Miss Rose was fashion editor on a magazine.

Richard Bennett, acting for the Mutual-American Company in Santa Barbara, Cal., refuses to ride in automobiles. A year ago he was in a car when something happened and he was ill in a hospital. Since then he has been a great admirer of the horse.

The fact that Montagu Love has refused several offers to act in the spoken drama recently doesn't mean that he has given up that line of endeavor. The World Film Corporation has kept him busy. Later in the season he expects to be in a Broadway production.

In a William Fox picture recently made there is a rural wedding. John Lawton, an organist of New York City, was engaged to play the wedding march on a little cabinet organ.
